Timed Meditation Candles

A natural meditation aid:

Introducing bees wax candles which are timed to stay lit according to typical meditation sessions.

This allows you to light your candle when you begin your meditation and continue until the candle goes out, providing for a gentle transition for your meditation.

Bees Wax has many amazing qualities including:

- Hypo-allergenic
- Long burning
- Naturally honey scented
- Smoke and soot free
- Naturally driplless
- Pure & natural
- Renewable resource

Our 20, 40 minutes, 1 hour & 2 hours burn time candles

Beeswax is an all natural wax made by honey bees. The bees will typically need to consume about ten pounds of honey in order to make one pound of beeswax. Bee wax candles have been sought after and highly prized throughout history for many reasons. Beeswax candles burn brighter and longer with less to no smoke it has a sweet aroma of honey, creating a relaxing, intimate atmosphere. Bee wax candles make an elegant gift from mother nature. Our candles are 100% beeswax we only use 100% cotton wick (no lead or zinc core).
